

SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

After all the fuss we made over the purchase of the promised new fire truck for Truckee, we feel somewhat sheepish now that some obstacle has been tossed in the way and that despite the fact the truck has been ordered and the initial payment thereon made, it may be some time before it arrives, if at all. Truckee certainly is sorely in need of the new equipment and it is indeed regretful that this legal block can't be removed with dispatch and the apparatus made immediately available.

It seems almost uncanny the way each Memorial Day in this region is dampened by snow and rain. The old timers tell us that it hasn't failed in many years.

It appears that Truckee is an easy mark for those smooth tongued individuals who make their livelihood by bilking the gullible and unsuspecting public. Only last week we reported how the local P. T. A. "took it on the chin" from an alleged show agent, whose show showed not, leaving the Parent Teachers in the hole some $20 and lots of hard work. Then right on top of that came a menu salesman with a good "line" who took orders with cash in advance for ads on the job, then like the Arab, softly stole away. He was followed by still another printing salesman (why they seem to think people will fall for printing orders harder than anything else worries us) who also collected a "small deposit" and then left for parts unknown.

Truckee is the hub of a grand lake country, all within a short distance, allowing easy travel to revel in the natural beauties and enjoy the fishing. Lakes Tahoe, Donner, Independence, Frog, Weber and a group of others too numerous to mention should be a factor in making this one of the best known resort towns in the country.

Old timers assure us that we can go fishing on the streams near Truckee without fear of coming home with a brilliant crop of poison oak, and there is no necessity of taking snake bite cure in the basket. The vicinity is said to be as free from snakes as Ireland.

Speaking of fish, it was very gratifying to hear our good friend Ed Harmon report that there was more than $400 in the fund to restock the Truckee river next fall with fish raised at the fly casting club east of here.

If everyone is having the same luck we are, they will all favor the restocking program only we suggest blind fish.

MRS. GORDON BACK FROM CONVENTION OF STATE P. T. A.

Mrs. S. E. Gordon, president of the Truckee unit of the Parent Teachers association, has returned from attending the 33rd annual convention of the organization held at Pasadena. The theme of the convention was "Peace Through Understanding." Mrs. B. C. Clark, state president was in charge of the sessions.

The subject was brought out by prominent speakers each day, when a sub-topic of the general theme was worked out.

Among the speakers were Dr. R. B. Von Klein Smid, president of the University of Southern California; Dr. E. Guy Talbot, national council for prevention of wars official; Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill, superintendent of the state department of public health and others of equal importance to the educational world. LOCAL SENATOR MAY BE ASPIRANT FOR LT. GOVERNOR

Eight High School Students Will Be Given Diplomas

GRADUATE JUNE 11

Dean of Nevada School to be Speaker on Program in Truckee

ROSEVILLE, June 3.—State Senator Jerrold Seawell, resident of Roseville and representative of Placer, Sierra and Nevada counties, is, according to an article in the California Republican Assembly News, a potential candidate for the office of lieutenant governor.

According to the official publication of the California Republican Assembly, the bug of political ambition has been getting in its bites during the closing days of the 52nd session of the legislature, and the office of lieutenant governor seems to be the goal of almost as many candidates as those who seek nominations for governor.

Senator Seawell's entering the lieutenant governor race seems to hinge on whether Lieut. Gov. Geo. J. Hatfield aspires to re-election.

Senator Seawell made an earnest effort to obtain the post of president pro tempore of the senate at the beginning of the current session but did not finally present himself as a candidate when it became evident that Senator William P. Rich of Marysville was the favored man.

The Roseville Solon, the Assembly News says, figured that the pro-tem spot would place him in line as a contender for the lieutenant governor's job.

It is just possible, the paper states that Senator Rich, who represents Yuba and Sutter counties, has had much the same notion since he has held the pro tem honor for two sessions. Some of his friends intimate that he expects him to be an active candidate for promotion to the post now held by Hatfield.

Local Team Loses Contest To CCC Boys On Truckee Field

A close game was played on the local diamond last Sunday when the Rubicon Point CCC boys scored a victory over the Truckee boys with a score of 11 to 10.

An exciting ninth inning rally by the local team was stopped when two pinch hitters fanned out and Bud Owens was tagged off third base when he ventured too close to the home base.

Frank Giovannoni and Owens made up the home battery.

The local nine will meet Sierraville on the Truckee diamond next Sunday at 2:30.

The main road construction will get under way about June 15 with Jerry Bing, formerly of Grass Valley as superintendent.

GAIENNE TELLS OF NEW BRIDGE AT MEETING OF LIONS

Pet Bear Will Not Greet Forester on 21st Year on Peak

Frank Maher will resume his task of protecting forests for the 21st consecutive season at Martis peak on June 6 when he will, with the assistance of pack horses for supplies, take up his summer residence at the lofty point.

Despite the laborious method necessary to move foodstuffs because of the snow, Maher will have on his list 100 pounds of nuts and 300 pounds of flour expressly for his large family of chipmunks and mice.

The usual home-coming will be saddened, however, because some thoughtless hunter shot and killed a pet bear that welcomed him with open arms in the past years.

Martis Peak overlooks Truckee and having a station open at that point will lessen the fire hazard in the surrounding vicinity.

Holiday Crowds in Truckee Greeted With Mild Storms

Hundreds Motor To Truckee, Tahoe To Enjoy Week end

Despite more or less inclement weather, hundreds of motorists took advantage of the two-day holiday Sunday and Monday and Truckee and Tahoe were scenes of unusual activity.

Throughout the area, streams and lakes were lined by fishermen, who spent hours between rain and even flurries of snow to coax the cautious trout onto the fatal hook. There were few good catches recorded.

No special services marked the passing of Memorial Day here.

GRAMMAR STNDENTS WILL GIVE PLAY AT SCHOOL SOON

"Bits O' Blarney," an operetta in three acts will be presented by the students of the Truckee Grammar school at the new auditorium on Monday evening, June 14 at 8 o'clock. The children of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades are taking part in the production.

The new curtain has been installed and the proceeds from the show will be used to aid in defraying the expense.

The scene, which has won the admiration of all who have seen it, was painted by Principal P. R. Nelson. The value of the painting has been fixed in excess of $150.

The operetta is being directed by Miss Charlotte Pfeuffer and Miss Norma Reichelt.

TELEPHONE BOOKS BEING DISTRIBUTED IN THIS VICINITY

Distribution of new telephone directories is being made here this week by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Bound in green cover, the new edition is thicker by approximately 16 pages than the issue it replaced, according to A. P. Leitch, local manager.

Approximately 70,000 books were being distributed to 388 towns and communities in 11 northern California counties.

Leitch urged people to remove valuable papers and notations from the gray-covered books before exchanging them for new copies.

TECHNICALITY IS ENCOUNTERED IN TRUCK PURCHASE

Delay Incurred as Obstacle Enters Progress of Local Deal

MAY NEED ELECTION

Fire Truck Was Scheduled To Arrive Here On June 1

Possibilities that Truckee may not get its promised new fire truck as early as anticipated looms as the result of a legal technicality which has arisen during the past few days.

The new truck and equipment was ordered by the local fire district commissioners, Dr. J. H. Bernard and F. W. Gaienne several weeks ago. The apparatus was being mounted in Sacramento and it was scheduled to arrive here about June 1.

Then came word from the district attorney, according to the commissioners, which temporarily at least delays the improvement, the need for which is apparent.

It is possible that a special election may be necessary before the truck can be secured.

In the meantime, the old, dilapidated machine, which is stalled more often than not and which it was hoped would be relegated to the junk pile, must suffice.

SEVERAL FIRES ARE CONTROLLED IN AREA BY RANGERS

Constant vigilance on the part of local forest service men this week kept several incipient blazes from doing serious damage in the Tahoe forests.

Ranger H. I. Snider and Assistant Garth Flint and W. C. Winslow, investigated a blaze on Monday located near the cemetery east of town and discovered that a transient had built a fire on the Hobart Estate company land, left it to get some water and upon returning found his bed roll in ashes.

A half acre of land was burned over and a number of trees were badly scorched by the conflagration.

Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith before whom the man, James Andrews, appeared, gave him a lecture on the serious consequences and a 30-day suspended jail sentence.

Fire of unknown origin threatened the summer home of Mrs. Schwalenberg located on government land in the Donner Lake district last Monday. The side of the house, which was erected last fall, was burned and more serious damage was prevented by the arrival of Assistant Rangers Flint and James Gleaton.

It was reported that the summer home of Colonel Miller of Tahoe Vista was threatened on Tuesday night when the roof caught fire from a defective flue. Painters who were living in the place while working there, discovered the fire and were fortunate in having water to extinguish it after a hole had been burned through the roof.

Waldo Van Aresdale of Incline and Raymond Sparks of Tahoe Camp lent valuable assistance to the other men.

MEMBER OF PIONEER FAMILY SUCCUMBS

Mrs. Bertha Mazza died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jerrold Delaney at Grass Valley, May 26 at the age of 71. A daughter of a pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Ruck of Grass Valley, she had spent her entire life in this county.

TIME FOR CATHOLIC SERVICES DURING SUMMER CHANGED

Rev. William Daly of the Catholic Church in Truckee has announced that mass will be heard from 8:30 to 9 a. m. on Sundays. At 10:30 a. m. he will conduct services at Tahoe City. This arrangement will continue throughout the summer.

THIS WAY TO SECURITY

The action of the Supreme Court in upholding the social security act has been heralded as a significant milestone on the highway of the new social order. We can ill afford, however, to harbor the delusion that government has now assumed all the worries and responsibilities of the individual.

The unemployment-insurance features of the social security act, in effect, guarantee temporary aid to help the individual over some of the bumps during a period of unemployment. But there is no guarantee of re-employment, for that is something which cannot be ordained by law, nor decreed by courts.

Old-age provisions of the act, too, seek to enable us to provide, in our productive years, for the non-productive years later in life. But there must be productive years first.

There is no magic about government—no easy road to security in governmental enactments. Government, after all, is simply a composite of the citizenry who compose it. It derives its strength from the individual. And the problem of security, at the bottom, is still a problem of individual enterprise and human endeavor.

Government, during the depression, came to our rescue, using the reserves which we had piled up in better years—and mortgaging the future. But the time has come when we must again stand on our own feet, pay our debts and create new reserves for future security. We must also prepare our youth for life's battles; equip them adequately, teach them to hold up their own end in the game of working and living. We must plant their feet on the hard road to security—the road of hard work, courage, frugality and right-living; the road to accomplishment. The social security act may extend a helping hand along the way, but for human endeavor government has no substitute.

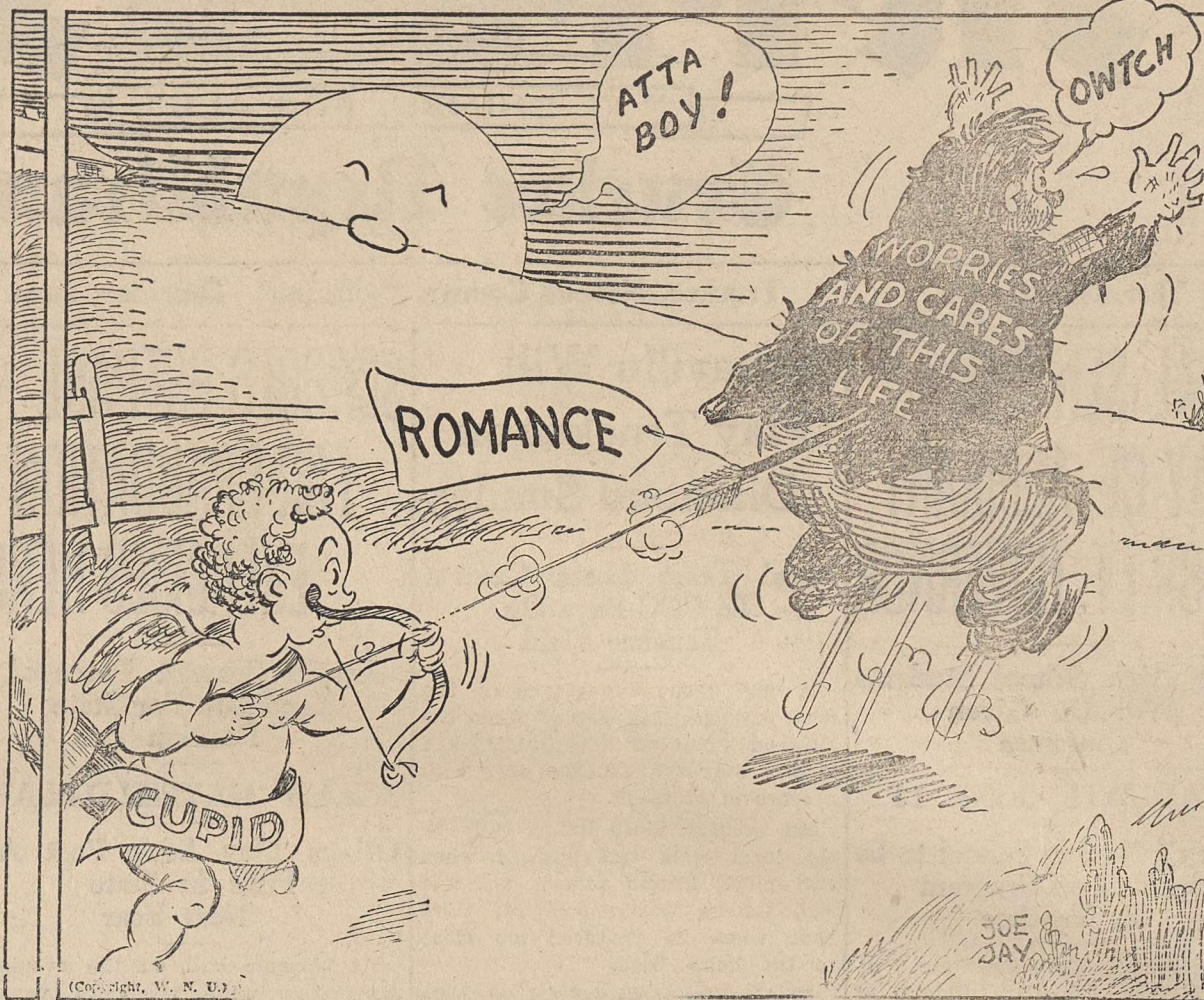

LAWS AND MORE LAWS

Ninty days from now there will be hundreds of new ways to violate the laws of California. Not until then will the new batch of laws passed by our now-adjourning legislature go into effect.

And what a batch! However skeptical you may be about quality of this year's legislative performance, you will have to admit it was not short on quantity. Laws and more laws, pertaining to every conceivable activity of man. It is enough to make a sensitive, conscientious citizen, already surrounded by some hundred thousands of "do's" and "don'ts" hesitate to venture out of doors without a statute book handy to guide him.

But actually, of course, the ways of life in California will be very little changed. As for learning what the new laws are—that is well nigh impossible for the most of us. Prob-

LEGISLATIVE SIDELIGHTS (By United Press)

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—(UP)—Hilarity is not uncommon during night sessions of the assembly where many of the members like to have fun while working.

During the Saturday night session which was necessary to clean up the lower house calendar, Assemblyman Hugh Burns provided some diversion by slipping up to members—preferably those making speeches—and snipping off their ties. He tried to get Assemblyman Charles Weber's, among others, but cut the tie only in half.

Weber went around exhibiting the damaged tie. "A $5 tie and a $10 shirt, in fact, a $10.50 shirt, and look what he did to it," Weber complained to everyone who would listen. The shirt was not damaged.

Assemblyman Gene Flint tried to retaliate, and in the scuffle Burns fell out of his chair. Quieter members shouted a demand for order. Speaker William Moseley Jones pounded his gavel and sent sergeants of arms scurrying about restoring peace.

"We need to remodel the assembly wing of the capitol building so assemblymen can have private quarters in which to transact their business," Assemblyman Levey informed a senate committee.

"That seems like a good idea to me," one senator declared. "Anyone who has visited Sacramento will testify that the need for improvement in the assembly is obvious."

Assemblyman Sam Heisinger told the assembly what he thought of a bill under consideration.

In reply Assemblyman William Hornblower said:

"As near as I can figure it out, Mr. Heisinger has explained that he has lived for 44 years in Fresno county. That's all."

"The $4,500 will be used to bring up to date the libraries in the district appellate courts," a witness informed the senate finance committee.

"Judging from some of the decisions, they could use the money," remarked a lawyer member of the committee.

The senate, traditionally staid in conduct, was no little disturbed by the appearance of a comely blonde woman, interested in legislation affecting the beauty parlor business.

Members of the H and W club of Meek's Bay and their friends on Thursday evening surprised Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bowman and son Kenneth at their new home in Tahoma district with a good old-fashioned house warming. Many lovely gifts and tasty refreshments were brought by the visitors who proceeded to make merry the evening. Among the presents was a set of colorful California pottery given by the club. Guests who shared the occasion included

Arthur Crist, Jr., who married the former Kay Coogan of Piedmont, will also summer with his wife at Tahoe.

FASHION SHOW GIVEN BY TAHOE SCHOOL GIRLS IS DECLARED A SUCCESS

TAHOE CITY, June 3.—A large number of ladies gathered on Thursday to witness the fashion show conducted by members of the home economics class of the local high school. Models included Misses Becy Brodehl, Pauline Steinheimer, Dorothy Hollenbeck, Frances McBride and Eunice Duffee.

The girls displayed unusual ability to model the swim and sport costumes and stylish summer cottons, many of them made by the models, which were heartily applauded by the large audience.

Garments were supplied by both the Tahoe Mercantile and Rossarini's in Truckee and represented the cream of the season's fashion parade favorites.

Miss Mary Pronzato was the announcer and the Misses Mary Jane and Alice Soll, Miss Patsy Henry and Miss Marilyn Hinkle served as hostesses.

Honored guests were Mrs. Portia Moss, Mrs. Arta B. Flood and Mrs. George Hamilton of Auburn.

Tea or coffee, with open-faced sandwiches, cakes and candy were served mothers and their friends at the conclusion of the fashion show. Miss Hollenbeck and Miss McBride rendered a clever tap dance number and Mrs. Barbara Spitzzen rendered appropriate musical accompaniment for the models.

Meeting Daily Needs

EVERYONE has daily needs, and in many cases they are numerous. Thus, everywhere people are engaged in devising ways and means of meeting these needs.

Food, clothing, and shelter are generally considered to be the most important daily necessities. Throughout the ages, humanity has worked to cultivate the soil for crops, to weave material for clothing, to build homes for shelter and repose and ships for transportation. These and other methods of supplying the needs of mankind are constantly being increased in scope. In their turn the world's busy workers receive payment with which to buy these necessities, so that the so-called law of demand and supply may be carried out.

But sometimes this so-called law does not seem to be working properly. On the one hand there appears to be unemployment, stagnation of trade, poverty; and on the other, such a surplus of food that there is no longer any demand and little return for it. Then, too, a sudden decrease in value of stocks and shares, or rents from houses or lands, may bring a sense of insecurity and even, at times, lack to the one who has relied on a settled income for the supply with which to meet his needs. In this maelstrom of material living everyone needs to find a reliable source of supply, one which cannot possibly fail, because its basis is neither material nor limited.

In that most wonderful of all sermons, the Sermon on the Mount, our Way-shower, Christ Jesus, said (Matthew 6:24), "No man can serve two masters," clearly showing that we cannot put our reliance on matter and material methods and still avail ourselves of the true and enduring substance which does not fail. Illustrating the need for simple trust in God, he said (Matthew 6:26): "Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them." Evidently the Master discerned humanity's fear of limitation and the consequent anxious hoarding of material things. He continued, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

The kingdom of heaven, the reign of harmony for each one, is ever at hand, because our Father-Mother, God, the only source of real supply, is omnipotent and omnipresent. No longer, then, need anxiety or fear assail us regarding the necessity of meeting today's or tomorrow's needs. When we turn wholeheartedly to God, and realize man's inseparable oneness with Him, with all good, we can be certain that our need will be supplied. We shall begin to see that our real need is to know and demonstrate more and more of our God-given freedom, health, and happiness. Encouraging us along this pathway of right thinking, Mary Baker Eddy says in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellaneous" (p. 186), "Rest assured that He in whom dwelleth all life, health, and holiness, will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory."

What unspeakable comfort, what a loosening of heavy burdens, for all those whose family, business, or career needs daily care! When one seeks first the constant supply of spiritual ideas, of wisdom, intelligence, loving-kindness, co-operation, and purity, through quiet, unselfed contemplation of the spiritual nature of man as the child of God, every right endeavor will be abundantly blessed for the benefit of all. To such a one there is no insurmountable barrier of lack, unemployment, or stagnation; for he is proving the truth that each idea of divine Mind is ever engaged in true activity, where the enduring qualities of Mind are being joyously expressed.

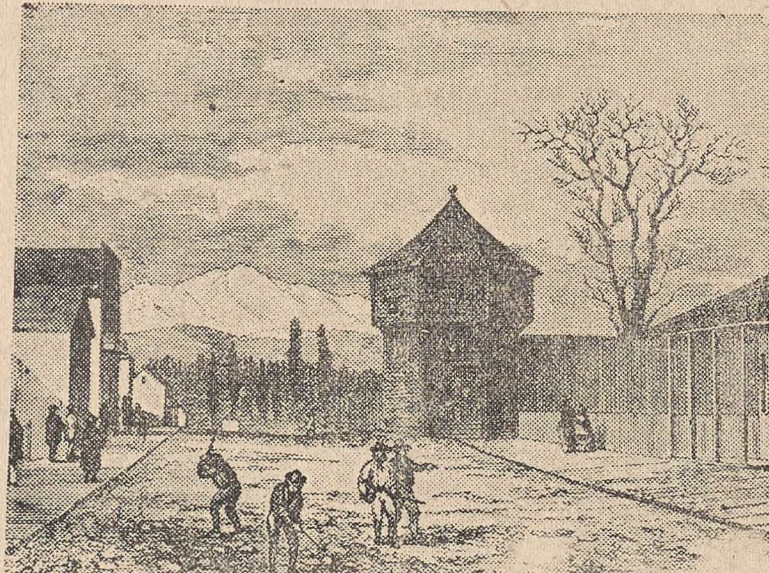

Then let us array our whole thought on the side of good, of abundance, and not waste time thinking or talking of evil, since it has neither place nor opportunity for expression in God's harmonious plan for each of His children. No one is left out of the Father's loving care. With joy and gratitude we can prove the truth of Mrs. Eddy's tender words on page 307 of "Miscellaneous Writings": "God gives you His spiritual ideas, and in turn, they give you daily supplies. Never ask for to-morrow: it is enough that divine Love is an ever-present help; and if you wait, never doubting, you will have all you need every moment."—The Christian Science Monitor.

one attack of jitters, Lobo was captured with the aid of John Pingree in the region of Tahoe Pines where he was caught easily because of his exhausted condition.

Mrs. Violet Garner was the unfortunate victim of a severe heart attack on Sunday when she went into her yard to hang out a few clothes on the line. Reaching for a clothes pin she collapsed and neighbors rushed to her assistance and called Dr. Pedersen. She has been under the physician's care since, but is improving daily.

Among the week end visitors at Tahoe were Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKee of Sacramento who were the guests at Tahoe Inn, and Gene Walker who patrolled the Tahoe region during the extremely busy vacation holidays, without making an arrest at that. Despite occasionally heavy showers, a few flakes of snow and some wind, motorists poured into the Tahoe region in a steady stream many opening their homes for the three day period.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Bradley of Vallejo, well known at Tahoe where they have an attractive home on the Emerald Bay Riviera, were week end visitors at the lake. They disclosed the startling news that a new little daughter had arrived on January 22, named Jeanette Louise. While here they enjoyed meeting old friends and neighbors.

Fishing season at Tahoe is now in full swing, the outlying lakes and most of the local streams opening two miles up from the lake on May 30. Most fishermen are having better luck than at the opening of the season, some excellent catches being made by the city anglers at Emerald Bay.

Integrity

ACCORDING to the dictionary, integrity may be defined as "uprightness, rectitude, honesty, faithfulness." In Scriptural record we find the Psalmist praying for integrity, the wise man praising it as a combination of justice, faithfulness, and wisdom, and Job fervently valuing its possession.

In the twelfth chapter of II Kings we have a refreshing example of practical integrity. We read there that the temple at Jerusalem was in need of repairs, and Jehoash, then king of Judah, ordered that the money which it came into any man's heart to contribute for this purpose, be used to repair the breaches of the temple wherever they were found. When this work was finally taken in hand, we read (II Kings 12:15), "They reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully."

What a lesson for posterity to profit from! The recognized integrity of the men entrusted with the funds dedicated to put the Lord's house in order, obviated the need for guarding against misappropriation, and excluded unlovely thoughts of suspicion and mistrust. The requisite amounts had been contributed with a willing heart, and they were disbursed in the same way. A suitable, harmonious condition this, for restoring the house of the Lord, and for accomplishing His work, while preserving the sanctity of the temple.

Actually, is not every day the Lord's day, and every place His habitation? All men, therefore, may work happily in God-bestowed integrity, since God, good, is omnipotent, and make of their workshop a sanctuary. They may also enjoy the accompanying reward, which Isaiah prophesied in the name of God, in these words (Isaiah 52:13): "Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high." These Scriptural words apply to all who are obedient to divine Principle, no matter what their occupation, since "the earth is the Lord's."

The servants of the Most High have always been blessed in the knowledge of their uprightness—in the consciousness of being faithful administrators in their Master's service. The conviction of his earnest endeavors to do the will of God furnished Job with the courage to exclaim, "Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity."

Perhaps the best catch during the opening of the trout season in Superior California streams was made by O. S. Schumacher of Truckee who caught the limit in two fish. The annual crop of "pollenitis" victims seem to be suffering the yearly attacks of this unpleasant, but not serious ailment which visits Tahoe shores each year when the pollen from the trees spreads itself into the lake and spring water. Recovery is slow, but sure!

The Sacramento Chamber of Commerce has called off its annual goodwill tour to Tahoe's shores this year, according to an announcement, because other events are scheduled at the same time.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shainwald are satisfying, in civil as in political life. Can an unfaithful, careless, dishonest worker be truly self-respecting and happy about his achievements? The answer must always be, No. In his innermost heart he knows his actions to be unworthy.

In an address on the subject of "Godlikeness" Mary Baker Eddy, the revered and beloved Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, said in her Message to The Mother Church for 1902 (p. 17): "Happiness consists in being and in doing good; only what God gives, and what we give ourselves and others through His tenure, confers happiness: conscious worth satisfies the hungry heart, and nothing else can."

No maladministrator can possibly be proud and happy over his monetary gains. He, too, knows his actions to be unworthy, and must sooner or later suffer from self-reproach and secret condemnation. Self-examination is an invaluable aid in determining whether one is upright, honest, faithful; whether one justly and conscientiously applies these God-given qualities. If this test results negatively, our need is to improve. We also read in the same message: "Consult thy every-day life; take its answer as to thy aims, motives, fondest purposes, and this oracle of years will put to flight all care for the world's soft flattery or its frown."

What a delightful condition of government by divine Principle we should have in all departments of life, if persons would cease to value irregular financial gains, or uncertain worldly honors! Mrs. Eddy, who valued only that which would pass the test of divine approval, gave to her followers, the members of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, which she founded, "A Rule for Motives and Acts" (Manual of The Mother Church, Art. VIII, Sect. 1), which begins with the following: "Neither animosity nor mere personal attachment should impel the motives or acts of the members of The Mother Church. In Science, divine Love alone governs man." Should not obedience to these words ensure soundness of action, true integrity?

When fairness, faithfulness, honesty, prudence, actuated by love for God and men, accompany every human undertaking, in the home, in business, in educational institutions, in politics; when each individual strives for the ability to pray with confidence, "Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity," we shall be well on the way toward a demonstration of God's kingdom on earth.—The Christian Science Monitor.

Politically Speaking

By GEORGE E. HELMER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Jun 3.—(UP)—A dull finish to a legislative session that was not marked by many outstanding controversial issues was enlivened by the distribution of subpoenas ordering ten legislators and an assistant sergeant-at-arms to face the Sacramento county grand jury and tell what they knew about reported bribery.

Senator Culbert L. Olson started the fireworks when he charged, on the senate floor, that bribery was involved in the handling of the Welsh tideland oil bill which was diametrically opposed to his own measure on the same subject.

Both houses adopted a resolution asking Attorney General U. S. Webb and district attorneys to investigate.

District Attorney Otis D. Babcock, Sacramento, was the first to jump into the fray. He asked Superior Judge Dal Lemmon to call a special session of the grand jury, then issue subpoenas for Senator Olson, Assemblymen Pelletier, Turner, Hunt, Reaves, Flint, Meehan, Voigt, Vorty, and McMurray and Assistant Sergeant-at-arms Ray K. Kahl of the assembly.

Olson obviously was called to testify concerning his accusations in connection with the tideland oil controversy, which was the outstanding subject of debate in the legislature this year.

The others supposedly were called to tell about maneuverings of a bill to change the alignment of the Arroyo Seco boulevard in Pasadena.

The oil developments overshadowed anything of the kind during the session. Several other bills were introduced on the subject. According to popular belief, the Olson measure which was passed and signed by the governor, was supported by independent oil companies, while Welsh's and at least two others have the backing of the Standard Oil Company and affiliates.

Olson battled his measure through. Then the Welsh bill came along after it had been amended many times, and both houses approved it, also. Should Gov. Frank F. Merriam sign the Welsh proposal, it would supercede the Olson bill.

In view of the many accusations, the legislature's action placed the governor "on the spot", shifting to him the responsibility for approving or stopping the Welsh bill.

The Arroyo Seco controversy had entirely different angles.

Mrs. Sherman Hoyt, wealthy Pasadena woman, had been contesting the construction of a new state highway in the Arroyo Seco vicinity because it will cut through a piece of her property, at the rear of her home.

She sponsored a bill to realign the routing.

State highway engineers objected; said $500,000 already has been spent on the highway and this amount would be wasted if a change was made.

Reports were current here that Mrs. Hoyt supported the democratic campaign last fall and in return received the assurance that the Los Angeles Bourbon delegation would support a bill to realign the highway. The bill went through the assembly by close vote, despite the opposition of the two representatives from that district, Assemblywoman Eleanor Miller and Assemblyman Frank G. Martin.

Comment circulated for days after Mrs. Hoyt gave the delegation the most elaborate party seen in Sacramento in years. The dining room reportedly was covered with roses.

The bill was stopped in the senate roads and highways committee.

Assemblyman Rodney Turner, Delano, one of those subpoenaed, said he was confident no money had changed hands in the Arroyo Seco matter.

Assemblyman Henry P. Meehan, chairman of the assembly roads and highways committee which passed the bill to the lower house, said he knew nothing about the matter except he understood the democratic delegation from the south had agreed to support Mrs. Hoyt's road program. Meehan also was subpoenaed.

Olson spent a few hours with District Attorney Babcock and reportedly gave him all the information he had concerning reports of bribery. He said on the floor that he had been offered $5000 or $10,000 if he would drop his own bill and that he understood an assemblyman had reported votes for the Welsh measure were worth money.

LEGISLATIVE SIDELIGHTS

Senators suddenly became interested in the bill and hurried to the rear of the chamber in great numbers ostensibly to find out first-hand what the bill proposed to do. After a jesting member requested Lt. Gov. George J. Hatfield make all senators return to their seats, a note-passing contest was started. Members questioned about it stoutly maintained their sole purpose was to find out all about the law.

Assemblyman Charles Lyon of Los Angeles, caused a laugh to ripple through the chamber when he referred to Assemblyman Nelson S. Dilworth, Hemet, as "Mr. Dillingwater" during a discussion on a bill to permit angle parking on state highways passing through small communities where wide enough to accommodate that type of parking. Afterward, Dilworth walked to the front of the chamber and Lyon, chuckling, shook hands with him.

During night assembly meetings, beer drinking in the cloakroom became a common practice. Lobbyists provided cold canned beer by the case and many of the members partook of the opportunity to slip out of the chamber for a cooling drink.

Then, one night, a newspaper photographer appeared. He snapped a picture of the heap of empty cans. He took pictures of one or two members drowsing in their chairs. He tried to get a picture of a lobbyist sitting alongside a member on the floor, but the lobbyist hurried out.

The next night and thereafter no beer was available.

Senator Ed Fletcher, no pioneer, seldom votes on the alphabetical roll until he sees which way the tide is running.

The reading clerk noted his failure to vote in turn for several bills and finally took to calling Fletcher's name last on the list, to the uproarious amusement of his colleagues.

When Senator Harold Powers objected to a bill which would enlarge supervisory privileges of the social welfare department relating to jail inspection, Senator John McColl remarked:

"Don't be so hard on them, Powers. You might be in jail yourself sometime and then you want first-class accommodations."

FISH SCREEN BILL
WINS APPROVAL;
BECOMES A LAW

SACRAMENTO, June 3. (UP)—The new fish screen law recently signed by Gov. Frank F. Merriam, interested thousands of anglers throughout the state.

Under the bill the fish and game commission is authorized to construct fish screens in any of the state's water diversions where it is deemed necessary to protect fish life.

One half of the construction cost will be borne by the fish and game division the other half by the property owners affected.

State surveys disclosed the fact millions of fish are annually lost through diversion channels which dry up and leave fish stranded.

DUCK POPULATION
SHOWS BIG GAIN
DURING PAST YEAR

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—(UP)—Cooperation of sportsmen and agents of the federal biological survey plus stricter regulations have resulted in an increase of 15 to 30 per cent in the duck population during the last 12 months, according to Hugh M. Worchester, California game management agent for the government agency.

PROSPERITY SHOWN IN INCREASED SALE OF HUNT LICENSES

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—(UP)—Interpreted as another indication of increasing prosperity, sale of hunting licenses for the first 11 months of the 1936-37 fiscal year already have exceeded the total for the entire 1935-36 period. H. R. Dunbar of the division of fish and game announced.

Dunbar said the bureau of licenses for the 11 months of 1936-37 totaled $438,399.50 against $367,880 for the previous 12 months.
